Property owners around the White River in Hesperia are encouraged to self-report flooding damage through online survey.

All property owners experiencing flooding from the high water levels on the White River near Hesperia are encouraged to complete a self-reporting damage assessment survey. This survey assists emergency management officials with understanding the extent and nature of property damage associated with the excessive rainfall/flooding event. The survey allows homeowners to report their current insurance coverage level, home construction type, damages to property, and up to 6 photos that show the flooding damage.

Based on information received and directions from emergency management officials, additional or follow-up surveys may be conducted. Property owners are encouraged to provide contact information to assist with future contacts.

For more information, please contact Oceana Emergency Management at 231-873-4473 or emergencymanagement@oceana.mi.us
